

Course Instructor - Profile

Donald W. Parnell, PE

Mr. Parnell has worked as a consulting designer and Design Engineer for over 32 years. He has done work for numerous electrical, mechanical, environmental, architectural & civil private-sector engineering firms throughout the years. His lifetime experience includes design and engineering in: electrical transmission/distribution, electrical substations, protections and control, GIS, manufacturing and automation, process piping, transportation (road and bridge design), commercial architecture, and environmental (mining and geotechnical) .